V. Insurance

1. Student Insurance

The insurance policy and procedure for claiming are shown as below:

(1) Policy Coverage: Insurance covers accidents or sickness occurring in Taiwan only (health check NOT included). Accidents or sickness requiring specialized medical care or occurred before the insurance policy was taken out will not be covered.

(2) Outpatient or Emergency Treatment: All fees must be paid by the insured up front.

The maximum indemnity per visit per day is NT$1,000 for the same symptom.

(3) Hospitalization: The maximum indemnity for hospital expenses per day is NTD1,000, and indemnity for Medical expenses NTD 120,000 per term.

(4) Go to a legal hospital/ clinic specified by the Department of Health, Executive

Yuan, R.O.C. with this symbol

(5) Please use your English Name when register at the hospital in order to match the name joining to the insurance program.

(6) Please collect 2 documents from clinic/ hospital:

a. The original copy of payment receipt (收據): You will get this document in every visit.

b. Certificate of diagnosis in Chinese (診斷證明): please apply when finish all the treatment for the same symptom.

(7) Bring all (6) documents to International Office. We will assist you to fill in the application form.

2. National Health Insurance (NHI)

According to the regulation, 6 months after receiving their ARCs, foreign students must join the National Health Insurance scheme. In the first 6 months, however, foreigners are not allowed to gain coverage under NHI. Each semester extends for 6 months (Sep – Feb and Mar – Aug). NHI costs NT $826 per month. Thus, for the second semester, you will pay NT $4956 (826*6 months) in NHI premiums.

(1) Applying for Coverage

Foreign students who have been in Taiwan for 6 months since receiving their ARCs must apply for coverage under NHI. By doing this, go to the CHU International Office at I211 and bring the following documents with you: (1) Two photos (2) Photocopies of both sides of your ARC (3) Passport if you ever left Taiwan during this 6 months.

(2) Canceling Coverage

Graduates or people who are under the circumstances of deferring studies, discontinuing studies, or even being suspended from studying at CHU, are suggested to go to International Office. Please go to the International Office to cancel your NHI coverage and receive refunds for payment of NHI premiums.

(3) Suspending Coverage

If you graduate, defer studies, or discontinue studies, please go to the International Office to suspend your NHI coverage. Foreign students who plan on going abroad for over 6 months should also suspend their NHI coverage for the amount of time which they intend to stay abroad. During this time, you will not be required to pay premiums. However, please note that if you return to Taiwan and continue studies before 6 months expire, you will be required to pay the monthly premiums back for the amount of time you were abroad.

(4) Resuming Coverage

To resume coverage after deferring or discontinuing studies, go to the International Office and apply for resumption of NHI coverage.

(5) Medical Services

After successfully applying for coverage under NHI, you will receive a NHI card. This card can be used at the vast majority of hospitals and medical clinics around Taiwan to receive a significant discount on the price of medical fees.

(6) What To Do if You Lose Your Card

If you lose your NHI card, you can apply for a new one at any post office branch for a fee of NT $200.

VI. Regulation of the courses

1. To take an absence from the course

Please take an application form from the teacher of the class.

(1) Personal Absence: please apply before 7 days.

(2) Illness Absence: Please apply on the date when you come back to the class.

Note: Student who skips the classes without notice, will be considered as absenteeism.

2. Academic Leave

Once you finish a term and would not want to continue to study at the following level. You should fill in the application form of leaving school. (You can get a copy from your teacher or the Office of International and Cross-strait Affairs).

Take the completed form and go through related departments for approval of leaving school. (If you don't know how to get through the formalities, you can ask help from your teacher or the Office of International and Cross-strait Affairs).
